Military Road \(Virginia\) ... There are plenty of side roads that are worth exploring, but be careful of gravel on the road from road work. You may also want to stay on Military road from beginning to end, the road condition stays perfect and the views good, but the ride I have listed gives a better variety of scenery.

Lewiston to Missoula \(Idaho\) ... follows the Clearwater river and then the Lochsa River. It is one of the most beautiful rides I've been on. Lots of curves and tons of scenery as you wind along these rivers. This is a must ride for all riders who love an outstanding scenic ride!

The Alpine Scenic Highway \(Utah\) ... Great views of Provo canyon, Sundance ski resort, with optional side trip to cascade springs (nice paved path), past Aspen Grove campground.

Schoharie Valley Loop \(New York\) ... route takes you through the gorgeous Schoharie Valley. Large farm fields stretch away from both sides of Route 30. Nice views of the Schoharie Creek are possible from the many bridges over it along Route 30. Route 990/ Co. Rd. 3/Co. Rd. 354 is heavily wooded and makes for a pretty foliage ride in the fall!

St Joe River Scenic Byway \(Idaho\) ... You will see beautiful Rivers, Mountains, Forest on this wonderful twisting lonely backroad nature tour! 100 miles of twisties and elevation. Follows the edge of the St Joe River. No traffic, usually deserted. If you can't handle some dust, then be aware there is a few miles of easy hardpack gravel surface on the MT side
